Scripture Reading and Prayer

Church at Study

Closing Prayer

Memory Text: “Sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace” (Romans 6:14).

Thought to Pounder: If works can't save us, why bother with them at all? Why not just keep on sinning? Chapter 6 is Paul's answer to this important question. Paul here is dealing with what commonly is understood as “sanctification,” the process by which we overcome sin and more and more reflect the character of Christ. The word sanctification appears only twice in Romans. It appears in Romans 6:19, 22 as the Greek word hagiasmos, which means sanctification. In English, it appears in these two texts as the word “holiness. In the Bible “to sanctify” means “to dedicate,” usually to God. Thus, to be sanctified is often presented as a past completed act. The sanctified ones in this definition are the ones who are dedicated to God. But this biblical usage of “sanctify” in no way denies the important doctrine of sanctification or the fact that sanctification is the work of a lifetime. The Bible strongly endorses this doctrine, but it generally uses other terms to describe it. This week we looked at another side of salvation by faith, one that easily can be misunderstood: the promises of victory over sin in the life of one saved by Jesus.
